THE OLD SLOOP
ROCKPORT, MASSACHUSETTS

First Congregational Church in Rockport, built in 1804. The name "Old Sloop" derives from the historic fact that the church was mistaken for a Sloop and fired upon by a British frigate in the War of 1812.

Published for Curtis News, Rockport, Mass. 01966

C27306

MA2035-Color Photo by Bud Curtis

PHOTO BY MIKE ROBERTS
BERKELEY, CALIF. 94710